The Benefice of the East Vale and Avon Villages

March 2019

This month the Church moves into the season of Lent, which is traditionally a time of reflection and study of our Christian faith before we celebrate Easter.

Many people choose to give something up in Lent, like a favourite food or even chocolate (if you're feeling very brave). Of course, this used to be the time when people gave up eating eggs, having used all the last of the eggs in the household to make pancakes on Shrove Tuesday. But Lent is not just about giving things up; it can also be about starting something new.

One thing that many people do is to undertake some form of volunteering or learning. This year we are going to be starting three house groups that will run for the five weeks of Lent, allowing people to do some informal study of the Christian faith and think about how it impacts on our lives. Two of the groups will be run during the daytime, and one in the evening.

One of the daytime groups will be in Bretforton on Tuesday afternoons from 3 pm to 4 pm starting on 12 March. The other daytime group will be in Middle Littleton on Wednesday mornings from 10:15am to 12 noon starting on 13 March. The evening group will be on Wednesday evenings in Offenham, also starting on 13 March.

There will be some sign-up sheets in the churches if you want to join one of these groups, but if you would like some further information please do get in touch.

Parish Council elections.

2019 is a year when, if we have enough candidates, we will hold elections in May for appointment to the Parish Council. This is an opportunity for anyone who has been resident for a minimum of one year or with property interests in the village to become involved and make their contribution to the various responsibilities of the Parish Council. The Council is non-political and meets monthly to deal with a myriad of issues affecting our village life.

If you would like to find out more, please contact either:

Sean Arble, Parish Clerk on 01789 490501 or email

clerk.cleeveprior@gmail.com .

NWR

The meeting in February was hosted by Diana who wined and dined us before we went into an hour of role playing. Stuck in a lift in the dark for hours was the scenario which led to outbursts of hysteria, comedy, anxiety, fear, bullying and other human reactions from each group in turn. The creativity of each group gave rise to much hilarity and was enjoyed by all.

The next meeting is to be held at Annette's home in Mill Lane on 27 March at 8 pm, when we will see a demonstration of hat making We look forward to seeing you there. Visitors and new members always welcome.

Women's Fellowship

Our February meeting was an Art afternoon with Don. This time he prepared a country scene for us to paint in water colours. Each one came out quite different and we all enjoyed it. Thank you Don. We finished the meeting with a cup of tea and cakes.

Our next meeting is on 5 March, 2.15 - 4pm. The subject is an unusual object. Refreshments by June.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOL

Isn't it lovely to see spring on its way? The snowdrops which were planted by the WI to celebrate our 150th anniversary are looking so beautiful at the front of the school.

It is been a very busy half term with all things Roald Dahl in Class 2, space exploration in Class 1 and a Viking invasion in Class 3.

On 23 January the children in key stage 2 went to the Genting Arena, Birmingham to take part in the Young Voices Concert 2019. They spent most of last term learning lots of songs and dance moves and joined 6,300 children from schools across the Midlands to form a choir. They performed in front of a packed audience, were entertained by some brilliant artists. These included Tony Hadley of Spandau Ballet fame and they had the great opportunity of singing 'Gold' with him. They had the most fantastic time and I would like to take this opportunity of thanking Miss Williams, Mrs. Grace and Mrs. Hughes for giving up their time to enable the children to have this tremendous experience.

I am sorry for the short notice but if you are contemplating spring cleaning this weekend you might like to know that we are having another Rags2riches collection on Monday 4 March. So, if you have any unwanted clothing, bedding and household linen, towels, cuddly toys, shoes (paired and tied together please), belts, hats, scarves, gloves, purses, wallets, ties and handbags, just bag them up. Any large plastic bag will do. Please bring them into school on Monday morning. Our last collection raised £98!

Cleve Prior Heritage Trust News from Field Barn – March 2019

In the Enclosed Garden

The garden makeover is nearly completed but we now have to let the grass grow before we can fully open for lettings - probably mid-June. Charges are broadly aligned to those of the Memorial Hall.

Out in the Orchards

We would like to know more about the bird life in the orchards at Field Barn. So if anyone regularly walks in the orchards perhaps they could make note of sightings and dates to help us build a picture of the range of species we have. Last autumn a kingfisher was seen at the big pool by the road and we would like to know if it is a regular visitor. There are several on the Avon which is only a quick flight away.

Events

The combined Nature Talk and Heritage Trust Update in the Memorial Hall on Saturday 16 February was well received and the audience was impressed at the range of natural history exhibited in the orchards, woods and ponds. People were also awed by the amount of work and projects undertaken by the volunteers in the last few years.

Coming Up – Dates for your diary

Saturday 20 April: Easter Celebrations. Egg Hunt /Competitions.

Saturday 1 June: The Food and Craft Fair and Dog Show.

Saturday 24 August: The Plum Pick.

Educational Visits

Would you like to be part of our push to encourage schools to use our facilities as outdoor classrooms and switch kids on to the wonders of nature. Perhaps your children or grandchildren's school might like to come. We do have some funding and its ideal for 7 – 11 year, Key Stage 2. If we are to encourage the next generation to conserve our environment then they need to experience its wonder first hand and grow to love it. Get in touch if you would like more information.

Volunteers

If you are new to the village or newly retired please do consider coming up to Field Barn on a Tuesday morning to help. Lots of fresh air and laughter promised. We look after 27 acres and there is always plenty to do. Why not come and give it a try?

Recording and celebrating the Market Gardening Heritage of the Vale of Evesham

The main aim of the project is to record and share the memories and buildings related to market gardening before this heritage is lost. A survey of surviving market gardening sheds (locally known as hovels) is already underway, so we are currently looking for help with the archival research and oral history strands of the project. Whilst some research has been carried out into market gardening within the Vale, particularly in Badsey, there are many more communities, families and related industries with untold stories.

Archival research workshop

Saturday 23 February, 10-12noon at The Hive, Worcester

Thursday 25 April, 2-4pm at Evesham Library

Further workshops will run in the autumn

Learn how best to use historic documents, maps and photographs to find out more about market gardening and the communities who worked them, as well as how to look up items in the archives. You can attend either session, or both. Afterwards, research can be carried out whenever it is convenient for you – whatever time you can give to the project is much appreciated, so no specific time commitment is required.

Oral history workshop

Saturday 23 February, 1-4pm at The Hive, Worcester

Follow on session: Thursday 4 April, 10-12 noon, at Cleeve Prior Memorial Hall

We'll go through the techniques of how to carry out an oral history interview and show you how to use the recording equipment, before giving you time to practice on fellow volunteers. The follow-on session isn't essential, but you do need to be able to attend the first workshop. Once trained, you do not need to find interviewees yourself and there is no regular time commitment involved in this aspect of the project, but it would be helpful if you can stay involved with the project until the autumn.

Please get in touch with Ian Robinson if you are interested in being added to the project mailing list, for progress updates and notice of events, or would like to get involved. Or contact the Project Leader Nina O'Hare, Worcestershire Archive and Archaeology Service, Worcestershire County Council, The Hive, Sawmill Walk, The Butts, Worcester WR1 3PD, tel:01905 844090.

On Wednesday 6 February Chris Beardshaw entertained a packed hall with his inspirational talk on the garden he created, sponsored by Morgan Stanley, for Great Ormond Street Hospital in 2016. It started its life winning the People's Award for Best Garden in the show at Chelsea. The garden was then transported to a central area in Great Ormond Street Hospital.

The aim of the Garden was to provide a reflective and restorative space for the parents and families of sick children. The area was a courtyard in the centre of the hospital and 56 tonnes of soil and some major reinforcements were needed before the garden could be installed. More than 70 crane lifts over 8-storey high buildings were used to transport all building and landscape materials to the site. After being told many times this would be an impossible task, Chris was determined it would succeed and the finished result was spectacular. A sculpture of a child was positioned to catch the little sunlight in the area and a beautiful facial sculpture captured the tranquillity of the wooded garden, underplanted with material blending in so beautifully.

This was the hardest garden Chris has ever created and built, but the most significantly poignant garden of his career. Certainly a very special evening for the Garden Club and one to be remembered.

Any plants/seedlings surplus to requirements will be gratefully received for our plant table In March.

Cleeve Prior Ramblers

The gathering at the King's Arms on a crisp, sunny February morning exuded anticipation for an invigorating walk comprising, we were warned, some six miles including a 'commando-style' ascent. After registering our luncheon requirements we proceeded through the churchyard, around the rear of the village and down to the wharf by the river. Here we observed the substantial clearance of the river bank which now shows clearly the site of the Old Mill with its water courses, tunnels and leat pool. Onwards along the river bank we came to Pickersom's meadow and Stubb's fishing pool. This area is an exceptionally pleasant part of the local river surrounds.

We then walked along the river bank to Offenham near the Fish and Anchor hostelry where we turned left uphill. Here a gently rising path becomes the aforementioned alpine ascent. All walkers tackled this with enthusiasm. The view from the summit is worth all the effort as one can survey miles of the river flood plain and surrounding areas. The next stage took us to North

Littleton for a pause at the magnificent Tithe Barn now a National Trust property. Mike had arranged for the barn to be opened for us so we had the chance to explore the interior and admire the astonishing scale and condition of this monumental edifice dating from c.1250.

At this point a number of additional Ramblers joined us for the final leg of our trek. Mike had organised things such that those who did not wish to undergo the full walk could rendezvous with us at the Tithe Barn and, now some twenty strong, we negotiated the footpath network back to Cleeve Prior. Back at the King's Arms a welcome drink and an excellent lunch awaited.

What a pleasurable way to spend a Saturday morning. Fine winter weather, a band of like-minded, sociable neighbours, some essential exercise, a walk to take in many points of great local interest and attractiveness concluding with a splendid lunch at our local pub.

Many thanks are due to Mike and Bridgett for the arrangements and logistics. The next ramble is scheduled for 16 March, to be arranged by Paul & Julie Freeman.

p.s. Much of the pleasure of such local walks is only achievable thanks to the voluntary work of many who keep the footpaths and the sites of interest clear and accessible. May I take this opportunity to salute their endeavours.

Helen's Walk for Mind

Helen Jones has lived in Willersey and, more recently, Broadway for nearly 30 years. In 2004 Helen walked the 177 mile Offa's Dyke path, raising £2,000 for Cancer Research.

In March Helen will be 84. In memory of her husband, and to celebrate her birthday, Helen plans to walk 84 miles over a 17 day period in the beautiful countryside around Broadway. With your support she hopes to raise £3,000 for the charity Mind which is very close to Helen's heart and provides help and advice to anyone experiencing mental health problems. Helen says, 'every year one in four young people in the UK experience a mental health issue. It is amazing to know that the money raised will improve the lives of so many people. At my age this is a tough but thrilling challenge.'

Several friends, many from the local U3A walking groups, have volunteered to plan and lead each of Helen's 5 mile walks. If you would like to support Helen's challenge, or even join her on one of her walks, donation/registration forms can be obtained from Mike Walker – see below. You can also donate by visiting <https://www.justgiving.com> where you will find 'Helen's Walk for Mind' in the Fundraisers section. Please note that for reasons of safety and enjoyment, companion walkers will be limited to 10 on each walk; unfortunately dogs and children cannot be accommodated.

I will be leading one of these walks on Monday 15 April, starting from the Kings Arms, and would be delighted if anyone from the village would like to join me, or any of the other walks, or just sponsor Helen.

Unfortunately the gremlins got into the February Newsletter and apologies are due to:

The Parish Council for a typo at the top of their page, and two of our valued local advertisers for mangling their advertisements.

The title line of the advertisement for RP Joinery jumped to the bottom of the previous page, and window-cleaner Jarrad Gavin's name and contact details were cruelly separated. It won't happen again. Ed.
